This is why we are committed to regionalism, top-level quality, and sustainability when it comes to selecting ingredients. Through this approach, we support regional producers and their work, safeguard our appreciation of the inestimable value of nature, and make sure that our guests find all the flavours of their holiday region on their plates on a daily basis. Every bite is a revelation of the gifts that nature bestows upon us.

GENIESSERstube

INDULGENCE THAT WILL MAKE YOUR DAY

We love sharing our flavour creations to give others pleasure! In fact, this is what keeps us going in the Alpenhof kitchen, where an energetic, joyful and passionate team is hard at work.

A place where indulgence takes centre stage – that's the Genießerstube in a nutshell. The team around head chef Maximilian Stock proves that regional ingredients can form the basis of truly magical flavours - and there seems to be no limits to what they can do! With plenty of flair, they come up with creative flavour compositions that skilfully blend regional and innovative elements. A feast for all the senses, best enjoyed with a glass of excellent Austrian wine.
